

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please read through carefully, any payment made towards your invoice will be deemed as terms and conditions read and accepted.

- 1. Your time slot is either 0.5, 2 or 4 hours long. Every hour spent at the venue after the pre-determined time slot will be charged at R 1 000 in cash (there are numerous ATM's in walking distance from the venue). Our final cut off time will be 23:00.
- 2. You will be reminded that your timeslot is almost up 30 minutes before the end of your timeslot by our hostess. Please start preparing to greet guests and gather your belongings at this time.
- 3. Please ascertain that all information on your invoice is correct before making payment.
- 4. Maximum allowed guests, including yourselves, are limited to thirty people if you have chosen to rent the venue as part of the Ceremony Only and Ceremony and Reception Packages. Maximum 2 guests if you have decided on the Standard Elopement package. Maximum 6 guests if you have chosen the Special Elopement package. You are welcome to include children under the age of 6 above the maximum adult guest amount. The venue will supply a 6-seater kiddies picnic bench.
- 5. A non-refundable R 1 000 deposit is payable as soon as possible to confirm your wedding date and chosen time slot, the balance is payable one month before your wedding day.
- 6. The format of the wedding and legal requirements is to be discussed beforehand with the marriage officer (MO) / lawyer. Simply Wed will put you into contact via email with the required professionals after all needed documents have been submitted. All queries regarding registration must also be discussed and referred directly to the MO / lawyer after the wedding has taken place.
- 7. Please note that Home Affairs (DHA) will not register your marriage if all needed documents are not supplied. If all documents have been received the MO hands in for registration at the DHA the following week after your wedding. From here on in it is up to the DHA to process all your paperwork. Even though this is an internal DHA process over which the MO has no control the registration of your marriage will be followed up weekly. Please note that DHA can take anything from 3 weeks to 3 months to register your marriage.
- 8. As soon as this registration has taken place an A4 marriage certificate can be obtained from any DHA Office countrywide on presentation of your ID book by you. This A4 may only be required for specific legal or filing purposes or to obtain an unabridged marriage certificate in order to immigrate. The A5 obtained on the day from the MO at Simply Wed will suffice for all standard requirements. You can then go ahead and apply for a new ID book, Passport and Driver's licence.
- 9. Please note that the photos taken and provided on the memory stick are unedited and subject to use for Simply Wed marketing. Any further requirements including editing and album printing is to be discussed with the photographer at own cost.
- 10. Please also note that Simply Wed cannot be held accountable due to municipal malfunction or acts of God. We do however have a backup water JoJo system as well as mood lighting in the form of lanterns.
- 11. The selected self-catering option implies that all food stuff will be supplied by the couple. All food stuffs should be pre-prepared and kept at the correct temperature (use of bain-marie for example) All dishes to hold food stuffs and their dishing up spoon to be supplied and removed unwashed by the couple on the day of the event.
- 12. A bar table with galvanised bath will be ready outside on the front patio to act as a self- service bar. We do not supply alcoholic beverages or ice.
- 13. We also have cast iron fire pits available during the colder months – please supply your own wood and firelighters. Please make fires at your own risk.
